COMES NOW, Plaintiff BRITNEY CLARKE ("Plaintiff"), individually, and on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This class action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiff exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial. The "amount in controversy" for the named Plaintiff, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys' fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes" except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because, upon information and belief, Defendants are citizens of California, have sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avail themselves of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over them by California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendants maintain offices, have agents, employ individuals, and/or transact business in the State of California, County of Los Angeles. The majority of acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiff and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of Los Angeles.

PARTIES

25 5. Plaintiff BRITNEY CLARKE is an individual residing in the State of 26 California, County of Los Angeles.

18 laws and statutes.

19 11. At all times herein relevant, Defendants ST ANNES MATERNITY HOME, ST. 20ANNE'S MATERNITY HOME, ST. ANNE'S FOUNDATION, ST. ANNE'S FAMILY 21 SERVICES, and DOES 1 through 100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint 22 venturers, joint employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-23 conspirators and/or assigns, each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting 24 within the course and scope of their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, joint 25 employers, representatives, servants, employees, successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, 26 and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly committed with the ratification, knowledge, 27 permission, encouragement, authorization and/or consent of each defendant designated as a 28 DOE herein.

12. 1 The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 2 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who sue 3 said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based on that 4 information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally 5 responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully caused 6 the injuries and damages to Plaintiff and the other class members as alleged in this Complaint. 7 Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true names and 8 capacities when the same have been ascertained.

9 13. Defendant ST ANNES MATERNITY HOME, ST. ANNE'S MATERNITY
10 HOME, ST. ANNE'S FOUNDATION, ST. ANNE'S FAMILY SERVICES, and DOES 1
11 through 100 will hereinafter collectively be referred to as "Defendants."

12 14. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants directly or indirectly controlled or 13 affected the working conditions, wages, working hours, and conditions of employment of 14 Plaintiff and the other class members so as to make each of said Defendants employers liable 15 under the statutory provisions set forth herein.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

17 15. Plaintiff bring this action on her own behalf and on behalf of all other members
18 of the general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under California
19 Code of Civil Procedure section 382.

16. The proposed class is defined as follows:

27 the litigation:

- a. Numerosity: The class members are so numerous that joinder of all class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is unknown to Plaintiff at this time; however, the class is estimated to be greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment records.
- Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of all other class members' as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the other class members with whom she has a well-defined community of interest.
- c. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of each class member, with whom she has a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiff has no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members. Plaintiff's attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement. Plaintiff has incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.
- Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.
- e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of
